Mara Osman to Deliver National Update at 2016 FAHP Annual Conference

Tallahassee, Fla. – The Florida Association of Health Plans, Inc. (FAHP) today announced that Mara Osman, regional director of state affairs for America’s Health Insurance Plans, will be a featured speaker at the 2016 FAHP Annual Conference.

“We are excited that Mara Osman will be delivering the national update at this year’s FAHP Annual Conference,” said Audrey Brown, president and CEO of FAHP. “Osman has spent 20 years with state leaders, working alongside them to educate the public on health care policy. She has also used her two decades worth of expertise in advancing regulatory health care and insurance matters in legislation. We are lucky to have Osman and excited for her to share her knowledge as a featured speaker at our annual conference.”

The 2016 FAHP Annual Conference, which takes places September 14, 2016 – September 16, 2016, will bring together a distinguished group of thought leaders in national and state health care policy, as well as experts on health care regulation and managed care. These leaders will provide insight on the current and future health care landscape, best practices within the industry, and solutions to improve outcomes and support efforts to provide affordable, quality health care to employers and to all Floridians.
