

Optimal Infant Nutrition: Low Cost & High Value

2017 Florida Association of Health Plans Breakout Session

Friday, November 3, 2017

8:30 – 9:15 a.m.

JW Marriott

Orlando, Florida

For more information please visit:

<http://www.fahp.net/2016-annual-conference>

Our panelists include:

- Yahdira Rodriguez-Prado, MD

Neonatologist in the Department of Pediatrics
at Nemours Children's Hospital
Orlando, FL

- Jessica Gordon, PhD, ARNP, CPNP-PC

President of the Florida Breastfeeding Coalition and Pediatric Nurse Practitioner from Pediatrics of Tampa Bay
Tampa, FL

- Ivonne Hernandez, PhD, RN, IBCLC

Assistant Professor at University of South Florida
College of Nursing, International Board Certified Lactation Consultant, Nurse Consultant for the Florida Perinatal Quality Collaborative, Mother's Own Milk Initiative and Published Researcher
Tampa, FL

Breastfeeding and human milk saves significant health care costs and confers benefits to babies and mothers. Please join us to hear perspectives from leading healthcare providers in Florida who counsel patients every day. Perspectives will be shared on evidence in practice and innovative opportunities to make a difference with policy. The panel discussion will be moderated by Emily Jones from the March of Dimes.
